"Who pays for them? We would like to know whether Uncle Sam or the Managers of the Washington Assemblies pay the Marines for cleaning Jackson Hall for the ball to-night."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26, 1853.

Mr. EDITOR: The above paragraph appeared in your paper of the 22d instant, inquiring who paid the Marines for cleaning the ball-room at Jackson Hall. For the purpose of satisfying your inquirer's curiesity, we deem it proper to state that we were employed and paid by the Managers of the Assemblies for cleaning the room.

It was a voluntary act on our part, being on temporary leave from the Garrison after having performed a tour of service for Uncle (Signed,) > Sergeant John M. Dogenhart. Private Peter McIntyre.

- Charles O. Brown.
- Ennis G. Patten. Wm. Jungling.
- Charles Rogers.

We insert the above at the request of the signers, and are glad to learn that they were paid for work done on the 22d of February. But had they also "temporary leave from the garsison" on the 8th of Fetruary?

National Theatre. - The house was crowded last night to witness the "Chinese Troupe" in their amusing and wonderous performances. These feats were truly astonishing, particularly the "Flying Knives" by Tuck Quy, and the stilt exercises by a supple China-man and his two pupils were also very amusing. They appear again tonight.

Light Artillery .- We learn that orders have been sent to Fort McHenry for the Light Artillery company stationed there to repair to Washington to participate in the inaugural ceremonies on the 4th of March.

Look out out for the "Little Jokers." - Several of the "thimble sharps" commenced the practice of their skill yesterday in various places in the city, and though the officers were soon upon their track, they were keen enough to escape.

The Susseer case. - This case has been postponed till the next term of the Criminal Court, in codsequence of the illness of an apportant witness.

The Special Police. The Mayor has appointed the following persons as policemen during the inauguration week. For duty at light to report to Captain Goddard.

Steph. Simonds, Jos. Fowler, Jacob Schaeffer, D. H. Jackson, J. T. Garner, Josiah Ray, Jackson Edmendston, H. T. Parker, R. D. Spencer, Taylor Hunt, George Miles. J. T. Hempter, W. W. Mockbee, W. T. Jones, J. Carroll.

The following for duty during the day to report to Captain Steele: M. French, J. Dewdny, M. Wilson, D. Westerfiell, W. E. Martin, Thos. Goodwin, John Cox.

The persons above named will call at the office of the Chief of Police and get their commissions.

Watch House. - Several persons were in for lodging. William Dyer was found lying drunk in the street; gave security and paid Mortimer, and Joanna Shane, for being drunk and disorderly, were sent to "The lam" for thirty days.

DR. J. S. ROSE'S NERVOUS AND IN-

VIGORATING CORDIAL. The Greatest Discover, in Medical Science. THE thousands who are suffering with any NER-I vous Affections, will find immediate relief in using this wonderful CORDIAL. It cures Neuralgia, Heart risease, Parpitation, Heartburn, Nervous Head-Accident .- We learn that a woman, living Ache, Tremorof the Muscles or Flesh, Wakefullness, and all restlessness of the mind or body; whether worn down by care, labor, or study. This truly wonderful Medicine, from its peculiar happy effect in allaying he most violent Nervous Affection-, and completely eradicating them from the system, may justly be termed the grandest discovery in the science of Medicine. It subdues and averts all those Nervous Diseases, over which the most profound medical skill has hitherto had no control. It is a grand restorer in building up a weak constitution, already worn down by disease and debilitated by other medicine; its invigorating pr perties act like a charm, and its benefical effects are almost miraculous. The weak, the nervous, and those suffering with constant pains and uneasiness, are frequently cured by using a single bottle.

Fix: I owe you many thanks for the opportuniti sl have had to read the Merchants Magazine and have r und it in reali y to he a Magazine, and that well re levished, of all the useful matter which the title would imply, and presented with a fullne s and clearness which delights white it instructs. It is, in fact, a merchant's magazine in the large acceptation of the term-merchants who go letween nations, who se large operati us bring many detarimen's of knowledge, and a view of the state of the word, into d i y requisition. But it is not the treat merchant only, but the one of more modest, but, nevertheless, of most useful operations-the merchant of the interior a so-wlowill find this magazine to abound with the information, the pursuit of his business and the e evation of the mercar tile character requires. Nor is its utility at all confined to me rehants, i ut extends to the legislator and diplomatist, and to all who are the racd with managing the off ire of the nation icr myself, I have found it mest useful to me in my renatorial labors, and have been in the habit for many years of c refully consuling it.

Very respectful, sir, your chedient serv nt. THOMAS IL BENTON.
